

Remaining Rubbish, Bio-Waste, Recycleable Materials - What Goes Where?

Black Dustbin

- sweepings
- vacuum cleaner bags
- nappies
- cigarette ends, coal ash
- sanitary towels, tampons
- cotton buds, cotton wool
- wallpaper remains
- carpet remains
- broken china and porcelain (small amounts)
- leather
- rubber
- light bulbs
- scraps of cloth
- medicines
- wax candles remains
- laddered nylons
- sticking plaster, dressing material
- disposable syringes
- old ink pads
- empty ballpoint pen refills
- broken window panes
- razor blades
- bicycle tyres
- dried out paints and varnishes
- tooth brushes
- disposable lighters
- photos, negatives, slides (small amounts)
- plastic coathangers
- plastic toys
- plastic pipes
- plastic laundry baskets
- plastic spring folders
- files
- (cat) litter

Bio-Dustbin (brown)

Kitchen Waste for example:

- fruit and vegetable remains
- coffee grounds and tea leaves including coffee filters and tea bags
- eggshells
- absorbent paper for example coffee filters, paper towels made of cellulose, e. g. paper hankies, serviettes, kitchen roll, dirty newspapers
- egg cartons and other paper maché packaging
- small pieces of crumpled paper
- leftover cooked food
- rotten or mouldy leftovers such as bread, meat, sausage and cheese
- spoiled dairy products (not milk!)
- bones
- droppings vom small pets, such as rabbits, guineapigs or birds
- hair, feathers
- wood shavings (only nontreated wood)
- wood ash

Garden Waste for example:

- hedge cuttings
- shrub cuttings
- grass cuttings
- leaves
- other vegetable garden waste

Yellow Bag

Light-weight Packaging for example

- plastic containers
e. g.
shampoo bottles
washing-up liquid bottles pots of dairy products
polystyrene tray packaging from fruit, vegetables, meat
- plastic foil
- composite materials
e. g.
milk cartons
juice cartons
soup packets
vacuum packed coffee
packaging
confectionery packaging
- aluminium
e. g.
tubes
yoghurt pot lids
chocolate foil

Collecting Container

- Recycleable Bottles and Jars
green glass
brown glass
white glass
- Wastepaper, Cardboard
newspapers, magazines
catalogues, brochures writing paper, coloured paper circulars
envelopes
flour and sugar bags
corrugated cardboard boxes
grey and white boxes
washing powder boxes
frozen food boxes
- Tins/Cans
please put the tins/cans into the the collecting container and only use the yellow bag if no container is available)
cans
tins
aerosol cans
bottle tops

Further Possibilities for Recycleable Materials:

- Textiles: Direct collection of good quality second hand clothes from charities
- Shoes: Return of worn shoes at many shoe shops in the Lake Constance area or at the recycling centers